

Transcript

Audio description

Audio description:

Jane presses the button on the pedestrian crossing. Above the button she presses, there is a bicycle and a man icon. They are lit up and red. when she presses the button, these icons turn from red to green.

Video narration:

When you are ready to cross the road, press the button and wait for the light to turn from red to green.
Don't cross until the light has turned green.

